Subject: EARTH2013 registration system is online now!

Dear Colleagues,

The EARTH2013 registration system is online now and the early birds get 12.5%-20% discount of the registration fee. After you finished your registration online, please email your complete registration form (<http://www.earth2013.org/download.asp>) to secretariat@earth2013.org.

We are honored to invite you attend the 12th International Symposium on East Asian Resources Recycling Technology (EARTH 2013) which will be held in Zhangjiajie, Hunan, China, in 3rd-7th Nov., 2013. The EARTH2013 has accepted more than 200 abstracts and papers from Japan, Korea, Thailand, Taiwan and China. It is expected that about 500 participants will celebrate the event together in Zhangjiajie at that time.

Please download the second circular of EARTH2013 here (<http://www.earth2013.org/download.asp>).

The followings are important and urgent:

1. It is highly recommended that the participants register and reserve hotel or/and tours online. Only registration fee can be paid online. The accommodation fee and tour fee would be charged on-site by cash or credit card (VISA or Master card).
2. If you need a visa to China to attend the EARTH2013, please apply it as soon as possible and the secretariat of EARTH2013 will assist your application.
3. If a formal invitation letter is required, please contact the conference secretariat of EARTH2013. Please provide your name, address, zip code and phone number. The invitation letter will be sent in time.

For further assistance, please visit the official website of EARTH2013 at www.earth2013.org or email to secretariat@earth2013.org.

We are looking forward to meeting you in Zhangjiajie, China.

Best regards
